

Two CEU workshops

Required for License Renewal

Saturday, February 7, 2009

Florida Laws and Rules 10 AM to Noon

- Covers statutes specific to Acupuncturists (457 and 64B1)
- Includes many important additional laws
- Includes real-life discipline cases
- Clear presentation of many FAQs:
 - "Scope of Practice" and "Title"
 - Injections, Use of Lab Tests
 - Employee vs. Independent Contractor
 - Fee Splitting relationships
 - Medical Records, etc.

One workshop, $25

Both workshops, $40

Practical, Organized, Relevant And Up-To-Date

Courses Include Notes And Handouts

Medical Errors in the Professional OM Clinic 1 to 3 PM

- What Medical Errors might occur in real life settings?
- How can they be avoided?
- Covers Acupuncture, Moxa, TDP Lamps, and Herbs
- Includes data of actual injuries or accidents that have occurred
- Also: Ethical and Patient Communication Issues
- How this information makes life easier and saves you from potential problems

Courses Presented by

Amy J. Sear, A.P., Dipl. O.M. has attended Board of Acupuncture meetings since 2002, and is the current President of FSOMA. She is in private practice at the Breast Cancer Centers of Memorial Regional Hospital in Hollywood, and Pembroke Pines, Florida, and a teacher at Atlantic Institute of Oriental Medicine.

To Register, CALL NOW:

Dragon Rises College of Oriental Medicine 352-371-2833

1000 NE 16th Ave.. Bldg F. Gainesville. FL 32601 www.dragonrises.edu