

Facial Diagnosis

With Author

Lillian Bridges

December 6 & 7

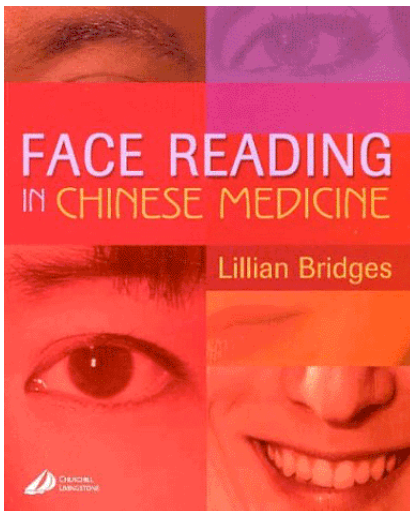

Saturday, 9:00 to 5:00 and Sunday, 8:30 to 5:30
Dragon Rises College of Oriental Medicine

For the past 25 years, Lillian Pearl Bridges' insights have captivated audiences worldwide as she has championed personal and corporate well being using a practical how-to methodology.

Participants will learn to:

- Apply face reading to Chinese diagnosis
- Evaluate Jing, Qi, Shen and Wei Qi in the face
- Analyze the facial map
- Interpret markers for specific diseases
- Learn recommended treatments in case studies

A Professor of Oriental Philosophy and Medicine, Lillian learned her skills from a long line of Chinese practitioners in her family. Her own book, Face Reading in Chinese Medicine, published in 2003, has been translated into German and Italian. Lillian trains students from around the world and consults with major corporations. She has been featured on NBC, ABC and Lifetime, and in national publications such as Newsweek, Natural Health Magazine, the LA Times and the Irish Times.

"This is simply the best book on face reading that we have seen, and if the subject fascinates you, you just have to get it."

-Peter Deadman, Journal of Chinese Medicine
