Presented by: Oliver Nash, BSc(Hons), Lic.Ac, AdvCST, MT, MBACc, originally trained as a massage therapist, went on to study acupuncture and Chinese medicine at the world renowned International College of Oriental Medicine (ICOM) headed by Dr J.D. van Buren. Following a fifth year of training and research in Stems & Branches at ICOM, Nash earned an honours degree. Study at ICOM includes extensive training in medical science, as well as both Five Element acupuncture and Traditional Chinese Medicine (TCM). ICOM is the only college in the world to teach the system known as Stems & Branches.

Oliver is trained to Advanced level in CranioSacral Therapy, is a member of the ACSTA, the International Association of Healthcare Practitioners, and the British Acupuncture Council. He currently practices in the New Forest on the south coast of England, and near his home in Wales, where Stems & Branches and Contemporary Chinese Pulse Diagnosis form the foundation of his practice.
